WAGNER'S REVIEW

Closing Stock Letter.
New York, Oct. 27.—Increased strength was shown in the stock market today, following initial advances but as the day wore on, nearly everything on the list made substantial gains. The action of the bank of Germany in reducing the rate discount to 5 1/2 per cent this morning was a factor in determining the tone and at the same time, the news from Mexico did not induce any liquidation: simply because we have had so much of it.
The Rock Island issues were strong and even New Haven moved up. Our view is unchanged, to wit: We believe the activity will be coincident with higher prices inasmuch as speculative liquidation has been drastic and prices are relatively lower.

Liverpool Situation.

Liverpool, England, Oct. 27.—Wheat: Lighter American shipments than was shown by Bradstreet's and disappointing Russian shipments this week, together with firmer Russian and Manitoba offers, stimulated covering at the opening and as a result the market opened firm. Unfavorable reports confirmed to come to hand from India, but Argentine reports are favorable.

Corn: Firm on smaller world's shipments and firmness of plate offers.

Broomhall says much apprehension is being felt regarding the disposition of weekly world's shipments in view of the small per cent to the United Kingdom. The continent is getting 75 per cent of weekly shipments and Russia and America are now firmer.

Drift of the Weather.

Illinois—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday probably.
Iowa—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday; probably showers; warmer tonight and in east Tuesday.
Missouri—Generally fair in west;
unsettled in east tonight and Tuesday probably rain; warmer Tuesday and in west tonight.
Minnesota—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday; probably rain or snow;
warmer in east tonight; colder in west Tuesday.

North Dakota—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday; probably showers;
warmer Tuesday in east.

South Dakota—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday; probably snow; colder.
Nebraska—Fair tonight; with warmer in east and central Tuesday; unsettled; colder in west.
Kansas—Fair tonight and warmer; Tuesday probably snow; colder tonight.
Wyoming—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday; probably snow and colder.
Wisconsin—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday; probably rain or snow.
